SUNDAY EVENING MEETING

Sunday evening church goes at the 2nd Ward should have had a variety, in the meeting when ten speakers participated. Speakers during the evening were Mr. and Mrs. A. Melchin, Bishop and Mrs. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Anderson, Elders Bob Walker, LeRay Anderson and Ernest Bohris all three of whom are going to Edmonton on a mission for the L.D.S. Church and Rulon H. Dahl of the Bishopric. Meeting dismissed at 8.45.

CONSERVE TIRES TO AID WAR EFFORT

Conservation of tire use to an absolute minimum is essential under wartime conditions, it is pointed out by officials of the Alberta Motor Association.

The rationing of gasoline is useful from that angle, as it has the absolute effect of reducing the demands on tires through curtailment of mileage.

Under present circumstances, the motorist who adopts a policy of conserving gasoline is at the same time conserving tires. It has been suggested that the civilian driver will have to depend on the present tires on cars for the duration of the war, or for at least two years, which means that they must curtail their mileage considerable compared with peacetime years.

This means that pleasure driving will be curtailed under a tire conservation system.

That is important in itself, because the demands of civilian business and its relation to wartime requirements must be fully recognized, having prior claims on fuel and tire supplies.

Minimum use of cars for pleasure purposes is essential if this country is to maintain its civil economy, on which its war effort depends to such a great extent.

The individual car owner has the responsibility of making the best possible use of his tire supply, while at the same time recognizing the need for conservation to help win the war.

PEARL HARBOR AT FIRST HAND

Dennis Lafferty, son of Chas. Lafferty of Raymond and Warner is visiting with relatives and friends in Raymond at present, having arrived here just in time for the Stampede. Den is looking fine and is really enjoying his visit to the prairies.

He is a member of the Civil Service of the United States Government and was at Pearl Harbor when the Japs made the "sneak raid" on Dec. 7th. Den was through it all and was mentioned in official despatches with other civil service members for their part in it. He says they will never be caught off guard again. He will spend about a week here. Because of transportation difficulties, his wife could not accompany him on this trip.

NEWS NOTES

Well, you can get up a sweat now without much effort.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Melchin of Winnipeg are here for a two weeks visit with their son Howard and family. They arrived Saturday night.

A number of Glenwood people and a great many Cardston people, amongst whom were Mayor Eric Holland, Chas. Cheesman and Dahl, Caldwell, were Raymond visitors at the Stampede on Thursday.

People from Lethbridge, Calgary, Rath, Warner, New Dayton and all the other nearby towns were here for the Stampede. Welcome neighbors, and come again and often.

Thomas Davies, 17, of Luscar Alta, was killed in the coal mine here Tuesday when he was caught between two coal cars. He had just finished school and had only been in the mine two days.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kears and daughter, Mrs. Wolsey and Mrs. Shideler of Cardston were Raymond visitors Wednesday evening and Miss Arminto Kears returned home with them after the school year here.

Reg Kessler had an extension of two weeks to his furlough, and is reporting back to his unit on July 15th, the extra leave enabled him to take part in the Stampede.

Eldon L. Brown and William Farely of Sheridan, Manitoba, Manager and chief geologist of the Sherit-Gordon Mines were visitors in the district this week. While here they were guests of Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Hall.

The Alberta Federation of Agriculture are meeting at Red Deer this week in a two day convention. An array of speakers are listed to treat timely topics connected with agriculture in the Dominion and especially the prairie provinces.

Kentucky blue grass is distributed all over the world, outside the tropics. It has many names—blue grass, June grass, spear grass, English grass, green grass, bird grass, smooth stalked meadow grass, and common meadow grass.

Stampede Reaches New Heights

Ideal weather and a capacity crowd combined on Wednesday to make the first day of Raymond's Big Stampede and Race Meet one of the best ever in attractions and according to estimates a new high was reached in attendance when grandstand bleachers and even standing room was taxed to capacity to take care of the huge crowd, drawn from Southern Alberta and northern Montana. Before 10 a.m. cars were being parked in the grounds and before 12 noon people were filling into the grand stand for the choice seats. When the program started at 2 p.m. the grounds were packed.

The Town was full in the forenoon for the Parade and program, which was interesting to all and under the direction of J.O. Hicken and his Committee exhibited the spirit of Dominion Day in a very fine manner. Mrs. Frank Leavitt was orator of the day and gave a fine patriotic speech. In the parade the String band and the Raymond High School band played, and at the program they joined forces for the band numbers at the Horse race never bucked harder, calves never fought longer, and steers were never faster than on Wednesday, and while no speed records were hung up in decorating nor roping, there were records made in the number of buck oils, and the crowd got what they gathered to see, a real show where man and beast matched skill and wits for supremacy of the day. Racing horses from all over the south of the Province were there to put real action in the races and resulted in many hair breasting finishes with the crowd on their feet and yelling madly as the horses thundered down the home stretch. The race card was featured by the Raymond Business Men's Derby, a real classic run this year for the first time. With a prize of $200 plus entry fees over the mile stretch, it brought out the best of the horses and it was a real sight to see the jockey and the horses in the battle giving their all for a fighting finish.

Following are Wednesday's winners:

Wild Cow Milking: Reg Kessler, Fred Bradford, Fred Gladstone.
Wild Horse Race: Reg. Kessler, George Ross, Adam Slosser.
Saddle Bronc Riding: Art Lund, Max Matkin, Gordon Hall, Duffy Stewart.
Bareback Riding with Surcingle: Raymond Christie, Kenneth Brower.
Calf Roping: Jack Morton, 16 seconds; Harwood Potter, Dick Andrews, Eddie Ivins.

Boy's and Girls Pony Race: Bobby Dahl, Fred Hardy, Bernice Heninger.
One half Mile Race (thorough bred barred): Geo. Heggie, Art Jensen, Grant Heggie.
DeVoe Matkin, entered in Saddle and Bareback Riding, Stear Riding and Decorating and also Calf Roping was warming up his rope horse just prior to the show when he jumped off on the run and stepped into a hole breaking his foot and putting him out of the shows for the summer. Warren Depew got pulled off his horse and required the attention of the doctor. Two of the cowboys got bumped a little in their work, but not seriously. Scotty Depew and Bob Heggie and Eva Nilsson, kept the crowd in gales of laughter with their antics.

L. D. King as General Manager of the Stampede, with his assistants, are to be congratulated for the time and effort expended by them in organizing and staging such a successful show, and Clark Lund and the boys at the chutes, certainly rounded up good horses and kept a program moving almost too fast to follow it all, when the races are included. Jim Meeks, the old standby for cattle had a herd of cows and calves there that gave the boys all they wanted in wild cow milking, steer racing and calf roping. The decorating steers from the long horned cattle of Streeter and Lundon at Nanton and had the fight and the speed to make this a real thrill of the day.

Following are the parade prize winners in the different classes:

FLOAT or ASSEMBLY: Primary and Sunday School, Stirling, Lethbridge, Mercantile.
JELTIES and UNCLASSIFIED: Jim Kinsman, Larry Dahl, and Zebra, Jerry Brown and Tony Smith with their Save Rubber and Gasoline Club, Ancient model Ford.

DECORATED WAGONS: Old Timers.

THURSDAY AT THE STAMPEDE

The sun boiled down out of a cloudless sky Thursday afternoon when a good-sized second day's crowd gathered at the Stampede grounds for the race program and the finals in the Stampede events. The hot day with a seating wind, stressed again the need for added seating accommodation with shade for the loyal and valiant crowds who make up Raymond's Stampede fans. However, they sat it out and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the fast moving show, where spills from saddle and bareback broncos as well as the steers was the order of the day. The only accident marking the day was when a snorting bareback horse kicked Junior Christie of Cardston on the shoulder after the boy had been thrown and broke his shoulder. Following are the race results, and the day money and final winners in the two day Stampede program:

Pony Race: Bobby Dahl, Bert Hall, Geo. Heggie.
One Mile Free for All: Leavitt and Brown, Rulon Leavitt, Tom Three Persons.

We must say thank you here to Hymie Cohen, beef buyer for the Acme Packing Co. of Seattle, whose efforts, through Mr. Gordon, Manager of the Company, made the race possible with its $100 prize entirely donated by Acme Packing Co. All Raymond says "thank you." A mile race is a feature of any Race Meet as it takes the best of horses, and gives a jockey a fine chance to show his ability in getting the most out of a horse in a gruelling test of stamina. Some lovely horses faced the barrier for this event, and it was a real race with a close finish. Again we say, "Thanks Hymie."

Half Mile Indian Race: John Edwards, Tom Three Persons, second and third.

Half Mile Free for All: Rulon Leavitt, Ernie Hall, Tom Three Persons.

Two Year Old Race: Clark Lund, Bert Hall, Henry Jensen.

Half Mile Consolation Race: Ted Meeks, Ernie Hall, Henry Jensen.

Chuck Wagon Race: Geo. First Rider, Jim Hair.

CALF ROPING: Day Money: Jack Morton, 17.3; Floyd Peters and Levin Morton split second and third in 21.4; D. R. Forsyth 23.3 fourth.

Finals: on two calves: Jack Morton, Dick Andrews, D. R. Forsyth, Floyd Peters.

STEER ROPING: Day Money: Jack Morton, 5.1; Dan Connelly, 5.2; Art Lund, 5.4; Ken Brower, 7.

Day Money Finals: Art Lund, Willie Head, Alex Hunt, Jack Streeter.

STEER RIDING: Harwood Potter, Rufus Goodrider, Jimmie Earle Plume.

SADDLE BRONC RIDING: Day Money: Cecil Bedford, Jack Ellis and Jimmy Darcy split second and third, Max Matkin.

Finals: Art Lund, Max Matkin, Gordon Hall, Duffy Stewart.

BAREBACK RIDING: Day Money: Frank Duce, George Brooks, Willie Head.

Finals: Ken Brower.

WILD HORSE RACE: Glen Stafford, Reg. Kessler, George Ross.

WILD COW MILKING: Reg. Kessler, Rufus Goodrider, Harwood Potter.

Following this year's success the Committee feel that the Raymond Stampede and Race Meet has made its place and

Army Week Is Observed In Raymond

Willis Taylor of the United States Army corps is home on leave for a couple of weeks. He arrived here Saturday.

The Cheese Factory Board held a meeting Monday night, upon receipt of permission from Government officials to go ahead and sell shares. The district was divided and salesmen are now going out and get shares sold and the building underway.

Without the detail and organization that has characterized Army week in some cities and towns, Raymond has observed it with spirit and appreciation for the men who are in the service. Coming as it did on our national holiday, it fitted in with the pattern of the Parade and program of the morning of Dominion Day, when the Vets, marching in the form of a V for Victory, occupied the key position of the half mile long parade, which was built around the theme of Peace, depicted by a suitably decorated car.

A number of our boys were home for the big day, and all during Army week, the Capitol, our popular theatre, held open house for the men in the service and every man in a uniform was given free admission, and was welcomed to the theatre as often as they cared to go.

The idea behind the Army week was a better acquaintance on the part of Canada's citizens of the army. Removed from any training camps where visits and inspections are common, except the Bombing and Gunnery School at Lethbridge, Raymond did not feature parades of troops. However, with nearly 150 men in the various arms of the service, Raymond homes are pretty well acquainted with the Army, and Raymond families are certainly doing their share in service.

Throughout the week stores and shops featured windows decorated with Army week posters and placards and backed by the flag of the nation, so that Raymond people were kept well reminded of the men who are serving King and Country in this great battle for freedom and democracy.

Ellsworth Scoville of the R.C.N. is home on furlough arriving here Monday last.

Mrs. J.C. Christensen of Lethbridge and her daughter Leona, were Raymond visitors Monday afternoon of this week.

Miss June May is at work again in the Treasury Branch after a holiday spent in Cardston and Calgary.

Wednesday evening Raymond's business street looked like 8th Avenue in Calgary on Stampede days. The crowd jammed the street until one just moved with the gang or he didn't move.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Leavitt Mr. and Mrs. Dale Leavitt of Cardston were Raymond visitors Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. I. May.

Willis Taylor, home on leave from the U.S. army was the speaker at Rotary Monday and told of some of his experiences in the medical corps to which he is attached. He is looking fine and said that so far he had really enjoyed army life.

Miss Gertie Hicks left last week on a vacation trip which will take her to Winnipeg, Niagara, Buffalo, Washington & New York, and on to Lincoln Nebraska, before returning to Raymond. In Washington she is visiting her aunt living who is her sister's mother and in Lincoln she has not seen for many years. She will be gone three weeks.

NO RESTRICTION ON ADVERTISING

Hugh A. Mackenzie, plain speaking director of Simplified Practice for the Wartime Prices and Trade Board told a Montreal audience last week of some amazing economies in eliminating business frills in the interest of streamlined war effort. Canadian consumers and Canadian business, he stated bluntly, just cannot afford some of the extra services and luxuries to which they have become accustomed in peacetime. But on one notable service Mr. Mackenzie significantly urged no restriction, that was advertising.

In the whole economy program, said Mr. Mackenzie, he has never once suggested that advertising should be eliminated. On the contrary, he was of the firm opinion that "advertising has a great and important duty to perform in the interests of total war," that "the most powerful and effective means whereby the public may be informed as to changes, and assisted in their undoubted desire to pull together for the prosecution of the war, has been built up and is available through the work of the advertisers and their agencies in the past.

Mr. Mackenzie urged that this well tried weapon of successful business be given greater use, by revising it to meet the peculiar problems of wartime. Through advertising he would have advertisers tell their customers of the changes made necessary by the war effort, of why the changes are necessary, and of how to take better care of the goods that are available. He would have them told that "waste is sinful and hoarding is treason." And Mr. Mackenzie would have them perform this service continuously, wold, in short, maintain the contact between business and its customers through the present war period, thus preparing and smoothing the

$233,000,000 SPENT YEALY ON LIQUOR BY CANADIANS

Reprint from South Edmonton Weekly News, June 11, 1942
There are two writers in the Calgary press whose articles are critical of the speakers at the A.T.F.A. convention held in the Southern Metropolis the last week in May, 1942.

The one from Lethbridge probably a beer district item, may be left out. Maybe the Calgary Albertans' editor was up at Bauff. Is so, the rest of the publication would indicate the second in command could safely be left in charge.

The comments in the "Herald" however, coming from an officer in H.M.F's, (And we are not sure that the Press is allowed to print articles of the nature,) may warrant some attention.

Did the officer make a mistake in quoting Dr. Little as stating that Canadians paid $133,000,000.00 for alcoholic beverages during the last fiscal year, or was there someone interested in alcohol looking over his shoulder, or the shoulder of the proof-reader.

It is not likely the Herald owns any brewers or distillers stock.

The figures above should have said $233,000,000.00.

It is evident that someone is ashamed of the facts.

DANISH BREAD EXPERIMENT

In the 1914-18 war Denmark slaughtered virtually all its pigs and one-third of its cows and the grain products previously used for stockfeed were then utilized to enrich the people's bread, which was probably the coarsest ever seen.

The national diet then consisted of this bread, vegetable products, including potatoes in generous quantities, a little milk and a little butter. After the first year the national mortality was reduced by 17 per cent to the lowest ever recorded in an European country. When the great influenza epidemic swept Europe in 1918 the Danish mortality rate remained the same as before the war while that of most other countries rose 25 percent.

IRON DUKE'S LETTER HAS BEEN RESURRECTED

(From the Baltimore Sun)

Admiral King doesn't expect his fighting commanders to sit down to a typewriter in the heat of battle and bang out a letter or telegram for home. He does not want them to do that until the first job, viz., the fighting, has been taken care of.

This is the second time within a week that we have had refreshing news of the determination of the navy to get rid of as much paper work as it possibly can. A few days ago the number of typewriters on all naval vessels was reduced by one half,
on order from Admiral King.
Now it is revealed that he does not even want reports of battles in progress until the reports are needed.

All of which suggests that Admiral King, perhaps, has read history with great profit. Possibly he has read a very tart letter which was composed in the year 1810 by the Duke of Wellington, then in Spain, and addressed to the British Secretary of State for War.

The Iron Duke was writing
on the subject of paper work.
This is what he said:

My Lord—If I attempted to answer the mass of futile correspondence that surrounds me, I should be debarr'd from all serious business of campaigning.

I must remind your Lordship
—for the last time—that so long as I retain an independent position, I shall see that no officer under my command is debarred by attending to the futile divvelling of mere quill driving in your Lordship's office—from attending to his first duty —which is, and always has been so to train the private men under his command that they may,
without question, beat any force opposed to them in the field.

I am, my Lord, your obedient servant.

(Sgd.) Wellington.

It might not be a bad idea if this letter were to be circulated among all our commanding officers, in all service. Or maybe it has been.

FEEDING WHEAT TO HOGS — STAMPEDE REACHES NEW HEIGHTS

An experiment conducted by the University of Alberta during the past few months showed that carcasses graded better from a pen of hogs fed heavily on wheat than those fed heavily on barley. Both lots received balanced rations.

Marketed at an average weight of 206 pounds, the hogs fed heavily on barley graded three A and three B1 carcasses, while the lot fed on wheat graded five A and two B1 carcasses. There was no significant difference in the amount of food required to make 100 pounds of liveweight gain.

This experiment is particularly interesting in view of the large volume of wheat available in the province. It has been estimated that some 29 million bushels of wheat will be fed to hogs in Alberta this crop year.

PURE STOCKS OF CEREAL SEEDS

The most important event, each year, connected with the production of pure seed, is the annual meeting of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association. This was held during the third week in June at Olds, Alberta.
Prominent seed growers from all over Canada were gathered in the Provincial School of Agriculture and Home Economics to discuss ways and means of maintaining and improving the quality of Canadian seeds. No one could attend these meetings without wondering what would happen to the yield and quality of our field crops were it not for the efforts of a comparatively small group of hard-working seed growers.

Regulations governing the production of Registered seed are made by
the Canadian Seed Growers' Association. Field and seed inspections, essential to the accuracy of pedigree
and observance of purity standards, are the responsibility of the Plant Produce Division, Dominion Department of Agriculture.

The various terms applied to the different types of seeds are confusing to many farmers. Actually they need not be. By purchasing Registered seed, the farmer can be assured of pedigree and performance. This is all he desires when buying a pure-bred bull or boar.

We cannot avoid the use of terms
such as Foundation seed, Elite seed, Registered seed and Certified seed.
Hitherto we have had First Generation Registered, 2nd, 3rd, 4th Generations, and so on. Each year, the seed is one more year removed from Elite, which produces First Generation Registered. However, the standards of purity are the same for all generations, so as long as a stock will pass field and seed inspection it might as well be just "Registered."
At the Olds meeting it was decided to adopt this practice; namely, to have "First Generation Registered" and, thereafter, "Registered." The decision, however, was by no means unanimous.

"I'm not going to blush when my soldier boy comes home!"

"THE WAY I look at it is this. My boy enlisted of his own free will. He's got to do without a lot of things he's been accustomed to. I wouldn't feel right if I couldn't go without something too!"

"The least I can do is to work hard and save. My kitchen, my shopping bag, my work basket are the nearest I can get to his battlefield. But I can buy War Savings Stamps — and lots of them — every week, so that he may have the tools to win. And that's what I'm doing! How about you?"
